CMS advises COR AG on merger with FJA AG

Stuttgart – In July 2009, the shareholder meetings of COR AG, Leinfelden-Echterdingen, and Munich-based FJA AG approved the merger of COR AG with FJA AG to form COR&FJA AG. The companies are listed on the C-DAX and Prime Standard, respectively. The merger was entered into the Commercial Register in Munich on 19 October 2009 and is now legally effective.

A team led by lead partner Dr Karsten Heider advised COR AG on all aspects of the transaction.

Following the merger, COR&FJA AG ranks as one of the leading software and consulting firms for the European financial services sector, with more than 1,000 employees in seven countries and annual sales in excess of EUR 130 million. Key areas include the banking and insurance industries as well as company pension schemes. The service portfolio ranges from packaged software through consulting services to taking responsibility for IT operations (Application Service Providing).
