CMS advises Cordea Savills on acquisition of asset manager IPAM

Stuttgart – International property fund manager Cordea Savills has acquired all the shares in International Property Asset Management GmbH (IPAM), a real estate asset management company headquartered in Stuttgart, thereby further expanding its business in Germany. As a result of the deal, Cordea Savills has real estate assets worth almost EUR 1 billion under management in Germany.

A cross-border team from CMS Hasche Sigle and CMS Cameron McKenna advised Cordea Savills on all aspects of the transaction, with CMS Hasche Sigle partner Dr Claus-Peter Fabian in the lead role.

Cordea Savills is an international property fund manager offering comprehensive fund management services. It has offices in London, Milan, Munich, Stockholm, Luxembourg, Paris and Singapore.
