Real Estate & Planning Disputes, UK

Highlights of our experience:

A corporate occupier

- A corporate occupier on a dispute arising under a property outsourcing agreement. The dispute was referred to arbitration and we achieved a result that will save our client millions over the next few years.

An injunction and subsequent Court declaration

- Damages for late completion of a sale and purchase agreement. The matter was dealt with from start to finish in two months, achieving a great result for the client.

A hotel operator

- Claims made by former landlords for sums due under leases following the liquidation of the current tenant. The matters are all still subject to Court proceedings.
- A release from a restrictive covenant to permit development.

A landlord

- A dispute regarding liability for repairs of lifts and escalators within a retail unit. This dispute was settled in mediation.
