CMS Hasche Sigle appoints five new partners

Berlin – CMS Hasche Sigle has started the year by appointing five new partners, taking the total number to 197 as at January 2010.

Managing partner Cornelius Brandi: "Not only has our firm held its ground in a challenging economic environment, it has also increased market share. We owe this to our high-calibre legal experts and the international line-up of the teams. We are expanding the CMS teams by adding five new partners, whom I warmly welcome. Our new partners are outstanding legal professionals and will be an asset to our clients."

These appointments underline the firm's growth strategy, particularly in the individual areas of law involved. CMS Hasche Sigle is also demonstrating once again that it offers excellent opportunities for young lawyers. "It is no coincidence that we consistently appear in the top-ten list of Germany's favourite employers," Brandi added.

- Hans Christian Blum, Stuttgart, Succession & Assets
- Axel Dippmann, Berlin, Banking & Finance
- Dr Christopher Jordan, Cologne, Employment Law
