CMS Hasche Sigle advises Deutsche Beteiligungs AG on acquisition of Romaco Group

Frankfurt – Funds advised by Deutsche Beteiligungs AG have acquired the Romaco businesses owned by Robbins & Myers, Inc. (NYSE: RBN). The transaction is currently awaiting approval from Germany's Federal Cartel Office.

An international CMS team led by lead partner Dr Hendrik Hirsch advised Deutsche Beteiligungs AG on all aspects of the cross-border transaction.

With 450 employees and annual sales of some EUR 80 million, the Romaco Group is a global supplier of filling, dosing and packaging solutions for the pharmaceutical, cosmetics and food industries. The main products in the Romaco Group's portfolio include blister packaging machinery, filling lines for liquids and dry substances, capsule filling machines, heat sealing equipment, tablet/capsule counting machines, tube filling equipment, vacuum mixers and cartoners.
