Antitrust expert Dieter Zandler has been appointed a partner at CMS

The international law firm's ranks of partners have grown again: in February 2017, Dieter Zandler was appointed a partner at CMS in Vienna. The antitrust expert, who joined CMS Reich-Rohrwig Hainz already ten years ago, plays a major part in strengthening the expertise the law firm has to offer in this practice area.

"We owe our excellent standing in the field of antitrust law to an experienced and highly skilled team, of which Dieter Zandler has been a member for many years. A large number of our clients trust his outstanding support. And not only clients, but also his colleagues appreciate his great commitment to his work. So we are very happy that he is now a partner in our team", says Peter Huber, Managing Partner of CMS in Vienna.

Dieter Zandler has handled numerous major projects in the field of antitrust law for CMS. He particularly deals with multinational merger control as well as antitrust-related fine and investigation proceedings, which have been intensified in the past years, and also supports clients in the fields of antitrust compliance and internal investigations.

Dieter Zandler (36) started his career at CMS as an associate in 2007. He was registered as an attorney-at-law in September 2011 and has since focused on advising on antitrust and takeover law.

He studied law at the University of Salzburg and also completed an LL.M. programme in International Business Law at the Central European University (Budapest/New York). He shares his expertise in the field of antitrust law also as a speaker and author.
