

Human resources services...

How we can help?

Our clients ask us to advise on a range of work, including:

- Employment
- Pensions
- Immigration
- Employee tax and incentives
- Health and safety

“...they are very professional, they are very proactive, they meet deadlines and they meet budgets. Based on that I would certainly recommend them to my colleagues and to any other company that asked the question. They’ve certainly got a wealth of knowledge, couldn’t fault them on that.”

Client feedback

Our track record

Here’s a taste of what we do and who we do it for...

We have recently advised:

- The UK’s largest employer on a range of employment related issues, including a recent leading case on information and consultation obligations under TUPE.
- Clients across different industry sectors on the new Points Based System for immigration from managing the sponsor licensing process to advising on and managing the full range of PBS applications.
- An international oil services group on its global cash employee incentive plan.
- Pension scheme trustees in possible or actual takeover situations.
- A major multinational financial institution in the formation of a global health and safety standard and procedures.
- A UK listed company on the impact of its rights issue and redomicile outside the UK on its employee share schemes operated in 12 countries.
- Pension scheme trustees in major employer group refinancing.
- A leading international bank on its merger with another leading international bank in relation to collective redundancies, the transfer of undertakings, changing terms and conditions, and bonus issues.
- A major international bank on the employment aspects of its strategic alliance with an insurance company.
- The European Union on cross-border transfers.
- A leading oil and gas company in relation to a criminal prosecution following a fatality.
- on European and nationality laws to find solutions to difficult immigration cases and thereby facilitating assignments for key employees.
