What sets CMS apart

We are one of the largest law firms in Europe. Our presence in 47 jurisdictions offers unmatched expertise in navigating the complexities of this cutting-edge industry. Our global team experts provide strategic advice to aerospace manufacturers, defence contractors and government agencies, guiding them through compliance challenges, managing high-profile litigation and negotiating critical contracts. CMS is dedicated to securing your interests while driving innovation and growth. Trust us to be your partner in overcoming the legal challenges in the aerospace and defence sectors, ensuring that you will always stay one step ahead in a competitive market.

More than just legal advice: sector-related expertise

Our track record covers a wide range of industries and niche markets. We have an unparalleled overview of industry and deal trends, helping you to assess the potential of a transaction realistically, plan it effectively and help you carry it through successfully.

We have extensive experience advising defence contractors, especially those from the US. We advise US clients on FMS and DCS transactions, new leasing structures, defence procurement, offset and industrialization packages, export control issues, technology transfers and licenses, JVs, industrial acquisitions and setting up local presence and maintenance facilities. Our experience spans the entire life cycle of deals for defence contractors, including compliance and export control issues.

Offering a global presence wherever you need us

CMS has offices in 47 countries and cooperates with renowned law firms in many other jurisdictions.

Our clients benefit from a joined-up organization that is committed to high standards of service and cost efficiency. This collaborative approach allows us to provide business focused advice tailored to your needs, whether in your local market or across multiple jurisdictions. We have the resources worldwide to support you in cross-border projects of all sizes.

Jurisdictions where we have aerospace and defence experts include Belgium, the Czech Republic, Chile, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Hungary, Italy, Kenya, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Norway, Singapore, Spain, Switzerland, Ukraine and the UK.
