Global Digital & IT Law-Now™

Law-Now™ is CMS's online knowledge portal and email news service.

It covers 77 areas of law and 20 sectors across 30 European jurisdictions, delivering the service in English, French and German.

Users can personalise the service so that they only receive updates relevant to them. Law-Now™ also features specialist zones which provide news updates and analysis on important legal areas, such as financial services regulation.

Global Digital & IT Apps

Digital experiences

Applications like Dawn Raid, Breach Assistant or myCMS are helping the international groups to market their expertise and improving the collaboration across remote teams.

The RegZone Platform

RegZone is a unique online guide to financial services regulation and reform. It has been designed by CMS regulatory experts – for use by CMS lawyers and by their financial institution clients.

RegZone provides news, expert analysis, data, research tools, training and a series of online events (across all major financial capitals such as London, Paris, Frankfurt) for those working in banking and finance, insurance, funds and asset management and securities and derivatives.

The RegZone web site is free to view covering over 70 regulatory topics across Europe and updated each day. You can subscribe for event invitations and for real time eAlerts covering the countries and sectors relevant to your work.

More than 100 regulatory experts across CMS contribute to the RegZone. CMS has 27 offices across the Eurozone and 12 offices in the rest of the European Union (including a substantial financial services and products team in London). Managing coverage beyond CMS

Where we do not have a presence, we offer to work with one of our network of trusted 'go-to' local partners.

ICMA, ISDA, IBA, ABA, OMFIF and many other international associations and conferences

CMS regularly supports the work of the

- International Capital Markets Association (ICMA);
- International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA);
- International Bar Association (IBA) and the American Bar Association (ABA).

Many of our lawyers play important roles in these international organisations, as well as in local organisations aiming to improve the laws and regulations across the globe.

CMS expansion

We are always on the lookout to bring firms in locations where our clients operate and we still have no office into the CMS fold, as well as to strengthen the capabilities of our offices through mergers with strong local offices. You may be interested to know that when CMS wants to expand, we do not open a new office in a location starting from scratch. We rather look for a local firm, examine closely their work, reputation and market standing. Only if they fit our standards do we proceed with negotiations to merge with them. Through these close examinations and negotiations, we learn a lot about these firms and, even if we do not merge them, we know if we can recommend them to our clients.

Our work and ties to these organisations help us build close relationships with relevant experts we are comfortable recommending to our clients.

They were beyond proficient with the cross-border aspects of the transaction. They did not just explain how things had to be done in our jurisdiction but also sought ways to bridge the requirements with those from other jurisdictions to find middle ground that worked.

Our Commitments

CMS ESG Charter

Guided by the UN Sustainable Development Goals and our commitment to the UN Global Compact, we work with all stakeholders to respond to the challenges our society faces to ensure we operate as a responsible business.

This charter serves as a framework to set out the firms' approach and commitments in relation to responsible business and environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) factors.

CMS Diversity & Inclusion Charter

As an international organisation with clients and employees spanning a multitude of countries and cultures, we believe that diversity is of fundamental importance to CMS. Engaging and supporting a diverse and inclusive workforce that reflects the diversity of our clients and their sectors is the basis for a sustainable and successful business.

This charter serves as a framework to help firmly embed these beliefs across our organisation.

CMS Sustainability Initiative

UN Global Compact Signatory (July 2020)

Helps us develop our overarching environmental, social and governance program to conduct business responsibly and in concordance with the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

In an annual Communication of Progress report, which is a requirement to stay in the Global Compact, CMS will outline our efforts to operate responsibly and in support of society.
