CMS Albiñana & Suárez de Lezo bolsters its Corporate department with the appointment Elena Aguilar

Madrid, 2 October 2020

CMS Albiñana & Suárez de Lezo (CMS Spain) has further strengthened its key practice areas with the appointment of Elena Aguilar as a Partner of its Corporate department, currently formed of 12 partners.

Elena Aguilar specialises in corporate law, focusing on domestic and international M&A. In recent years, she has been particularly active advising private equity funds.

She joins from Baker McKenzie, where she was a team director in the M&A department for nine years, including a secondment in Siemens, S.A.'s legal department. Between 2005 and 2011, she worked at Uría Menéndez, with a stint at the firm's Buenos Aires office where she advised foreign investors on their interests in Latin America.

She holds Degrees in Law and Business Management and regularly lectures in the Master's Degree in Access to the Legal Profession at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.

This latest appointment follows the recent appointment of the following partners: Guillermo Muñoz-Alonso to head up the Financial Market and Services department, Jaime Bofill to lead the Insurance, Reinsurance and Innovation practice and Alfonso Codes as a partner of the Public and Regulatory Law team.

Commenting on this appointment, Managing Partner César Albiñana, says: "We marked this year as pivotal for our strategic growth plan which is focused on boosting key practice areas and creating new ones. Despite the current climate, we are pleased to have achieved our objectives. We are delighted to welcome someone like Elena on board, whose international track record, corporate vision and visibility in the market will be a fantastic asset to the firm. A very warm welcome from all of us".
