

Your World First

C/M/S
Law Tax

Capital Markets & Derivatives, UK

Highlights of our experience:

A US investment bank

- A wide range of retail structured product transactions linked to a number of underlying asset classes.

A large European corporate

- A range of complex structured equity derivatives financings.

A FTSE 250 company

- Property securitisation transaction and various bond issues and restructurings.

A European investment bank

- Proprietary indices and compliance with the IOSCO Principles for Financial Benchmarks.

A US investment bank

- A wide range of structured derivatives transactions.

A US investment bank

- Incorporation of the 2014 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions into their structured note programme.

A UK regulated utility company

- Treasury work including its debt issuance programme and consent solicitations.

A UK retail bank

- Lead manager in relation to a major property securitisation transaction.

A large number of OTC derivatives market participants

- Implementation of the European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR).