

Your World First

C/M/S/
Law . Tax

Defamation, UK

Highlights of our experience:

A number of individuals and corporations

- The removal of defamatory material from the internet.

One of the largest global banks

- The proposed broadcast of an investigative programme regarding call centres in India and successfully preventing the programme being broadcast.

An individual

- Defamatory press reports regarding their departure from a football club.

A financial provider

- In response to defamatory material proposed to be broadcast about their subsidiary by ITV on London Tonight.

One of the UK's largest utility companies

- The design of a successful media strategy.

The largest network of charitable, independent hospitals in the UK

- Reputation defence in relation to a broadcast by the BBC and a number of newspaper reports.

A holiday operator

- A broadcast television programme, the resultant press attention following the broadcast and on a subsequent complaint made by the holiday operator to Ofcom.

A food manufacturer

- Malicious falsehood proceedings in relation to a supermarket's product labels.

One of the world's biggest multinational companies

- A proposed BBC feature film seeking to make serious allegations about the client's activities overseas.

A financial provider

- Relating to secretly filmed material by ITV.