

Policy Wording & Claims, UK

Highlights of our experience:

Clark v In-Focus Asset Management

- A case widely reported in the UK national media. Alex Denslow secured a welcome victory on behalf of the insurance and reinsurance industry. The decision overturned consumers' rights to use settlements paid by the Financial Ombudsman as a fighting fund for further litigation.

A number of international insurance companies

- The development of cyber policies across multiple jurisdictions in Europe.

The legal team of a major insurer

- The wording of consumer insurance policies, including travel, death plans, sports cover and credit card products.
