CMS Hasche Sigle is top employer for lawyers in 2012

Hamburg – The editorial board of azur, the career magazine published by JUVE, has recognised CMS Hasche Sigle as the top employer for lawyers in 2012. CMS Hasche Sigle received the azur award for first place in the "azur 100" list of most popular employers at a gala ceremony held in Hamburg on 9 February. The ranking reflects the results of azur's survey of job applicants and associates, combined with hard facts about new appointments and salaries.

"CMS Hasche Sigle received a lot of praise both from applicants and associates. Candidates regularly named the law firm as their preferred employer. In addition, CMS Hasche Sigle is offering more jobs for young lawyers than any other firm in 2012," noted the azur editorial board in their reasons for making the award.

"I'm delighted with this appreciation of our work and the high level of recognition from job applicants and our associates. The award demonstrates that we are on the right path with the career model we rolled out at the start of the year. Its aim is to offer junior lawyers even better and more flexible promotion opportunities within our firm," said CMS Hasche Sigle managing partner Dr Hubertus Kolster. He added that the firm remains deeply committed to training and development as well as creating attractive career prospects.
