CMS advises Milch-Union on merger with Arla Foods amba

Cologne – Scandinavian-German dairy group Arla plans to merge with Milch-Union Hocheifel and the UK's Milk Link. The transaction is currently awaiting approval from the EU competition authorities and the consent of the membership meetings of the companies involved.

A team led by Dr Malte Bruhns advised Milch-Union on all legal and tax aspects of this complex transaction.

The merger will see Arla expand its worldwide sales by around EUR 1.5 billion to a total of EUR 9 billion. It also creates the third-largest dairy in Germany. At its headquarters in Pronsfeld in the Eifel region, Milch-Union operates Europe's most modern production facility for long-life dairy products. The company employs around 1,000 people and currently generates annual sales of some EUR 700 million.

Arla previously merged with major North German dairy company Hansa-Milch in 2010. On that occasion, a team from CMS Hasche Sigle led by Dr Malte Bruhns and Klaus Jäger advised merger partner Hansa-Milch.
