Lelio Colloredo-Mannsfeld Becomes Attorney-at-Law at CMS

Effective immediately, Lelio Colloredo-Mannsfeld (29) supports the technology, media and telecoms (TMT) team at international law firm CMS Reich-Rohrwig Hainz as a registered attorney. He is specialised in IT law as well as distribution and data protection law.

Lelio Colloredo-Mannsfeld, who was born in the Austrian province of Styria, graduated in law from the University of Vienna, focusing on IT and data protection law. He has supported the TMT team at CMS Vienna as an associate since early 2010 and will now continue his career at the firm as an attorney-at-law. In his work, he focuses on product liability and consumer protection law as well as data protection law.

Lelio Colloredo-Mannsfeld is also active in litigation and arbitration. He has authored many publications in the field of data protection law and is an accredited data protection officer.
