CMS Annual Tax Conference

The Changing World of Tax: Governance and Responsibility

Companies are moving towards more fiscal responsibility through more collaboration between tax and customs, legal, finance & accounting because of the growing connection between company-wide synchronisation of tax policy, global strategy and corporate message.

Through high level client testimonies, we will show how:

- decision-making in tax matters and internal control of tax decisions;
- tax planning and management of reputation risk;
- declaration of cross-border schemes are all a part of the Changing World of Tax.
