

CMS Training Camp Getting ready for the World Cup Russia 2018

In 2018, Russia will host the World Cup. Preparations are under way, and the event is expected to be huge. Twelve stadiums need to be constructed or modernised and the infrastructure required to support an event of this magnitude also needs to be built. Therefore, in addition to being a major event for football, hosting the World Cup in 2018 means that Russia will have to implement an enormous infrastructure investment programme.

CMS invites you to prepare to take part in projects related to the 2018 World Cup, such as:

- stadium construction;
- hotel development;
- railway projects;
- airport modernisation; and
- numerous related projects and services.

Key components to get prepared for Russia 2018:

CMS has created a team of experts to share their knowledge and experience with you, including Russian and foreign qualified lawyers as well as experts from other sectors. Together, we are offering bespoke training sessions on topics of your choice and in the format that suits you best. We can also provide specific legal advice on projects related to the World Cup in 2018.
